CITY TRUSTEES.

Present, Trustees Jennings, Watson and Campbell.

Demand number 204 was referred to financial committee. Demands 195 to 203 approved and warrants drawn accordingly. In the matter of deed from Wm. Boyd to City of Glendale, the same was accepted on part of the city.

Report of city engineer in regard to petition as to improvements of Fifth street was to the effect that the petition represented 209 feet of frontage more than necessary; the matter was laid over for one week.

Resolution number 60, offered by Trustees Watson, was passed.

Ordinance number 46, establishing the grade of Sixth street from the easterly line of A street to a point 632.86 feet easterly, was passed.

The city engineer made a report in regard to the proposed street along the east line of the Child's tract; the same being intended to be constructed in such a manner as to afford passage way for the storm water from Sycamore canon. On motion, it was decided to submit the same to a citizens' committee with a request that they make a report to the board in writing. This report recommends a road 60 feet wide along the east line of the Child's tract which will have a grade lower than the grade of intersecting streets and when paved or asphalted will serve as a waterway for the storm water. This road would extend from Ninth street to Second, a distance of 6700 feet, from which point to Sycamore canon road is a distance of 4500 feet. The cost of the work as per the engineer's recommendation would be assessed against the 600 acres of land in the city limits, lying east of A street. When the board adjourned, it was to meet as a committee of the whole on Monday evening next.

DELEGATION RETURNED.

The delegates from Glendale to the annual convention of the W. C. T. U. at Redlands, have returned home. They speak in high praise of their hospitable treatment by the Redlands ladies, who entertained them in a most delightful manner, taking them among other places on a trip to the celebrated Smiley Heights. The convention re-elected the same state officers.

An Old Folks' Surprise Party

Not often do the "old folks" have a chance exclusively to enjoy so pleasant a surprise party as was given on Wednesday evening at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Martin, which was artistically decorated with white and pink carnations, in honor of their father, J. T. Rawlins, it being his sixty-fourth birthday.

Having just returned from his old home in Missouri, it was pleasant to meet with the "friends he left behind him", in California, although he was kept in blissful ignorance of any surprise.

His good wife persuaded him to go with her to spend the evening with a neighbor near by to await the arrival of the guests, sixty-four in number. The signal was given and Mr. and Mrs. Rawlins came on the porch, opened the door. Darkness reigned supreme within for a while, and strange as it may seem the old folks kept quiet until Mrs. Marchant touched the electric button and light prevailed. A kodak was wished for to preserve the look on their genial faces as they commenced hand shakings and greetings.

Joy and gladness mingled with reminiscences of bygone days and pleasures whiled the hours away until refreshments of cake and ice cream were bountifully served by Mr. and Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Rawlins and many kind friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin proved themselves a charming host and hostess and the old folks wish Mr. Rawlins many happy returns.

The Need of Houses

Almost daily in Glendale there are inquiries for houses to rent. Usually an agent has one or two on his list and a half dozen agents sometimes have the same house. As a matter of fact, there are practically no vacant houses here, and when for some reason a house is vacated, it quickly becomes tenanted again.

We gave an account some weeks ago of the good work done by one of our citizens in building a number of up-to-date cottages and getting families into them. It was strictly a business transaction by a progressive citizen for his own profit; and yet at the same time he played the part of a benefactor to the community. These are the kind of citizens we need, the kind that count in the upbuilding of a town.

We doubt if any better or surer investment can be made to-day that is here offered to capitalists in the building of residences of the better class. The demand is good both to buy and to rent, and as the merits of our climate become better known from one season to another, the fact is more generally acknowledged that the seashore is not the only comfortable and attractive place of resort for the summer in Southern California, but that the foothills possess even more varied attractions and give promise of a keener enjoyment of life during the warm months.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB.

Of more than usual interest was the meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon Club at the usual time and place. The room was graded with decorations of pink geraniums and ferns, artistically placed by Mrs. Walter C. Fraley.

The business session was full of interest. Invitations for two very promising events were accepted, one, for Reciprocity Day on Saturday, May 26th, beginning at 10:30, in the Clubhouse of the Shakespeare Club of Pasadena, leave Glendale on the 9:50 car. Another was an invitation to Monrovia for Reciprocity and "Crawford Day" on Saturday, June 1, beginning at 10:30. Leave Glendale on the 9:50 car.

Mrs. Pack, as president, thanked all for helping so generously and so well on Shriner's Day. Members were notified that badges such as were used by club members on Shriners' Day, can be obtained from Mrs. Chas. E. Stanley, price 25 cents.

It was learned that the club has at present about sixty members, showing a vigorous growth during the past year.

A motion to raise club dues was lost, after an animated discussion on the subject by many of the members.

A vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Patterson for excellent work done on club badges.

A committee was appointed to confer with Miss Mabel Patterson in regard to securing her services as regular librarian.

Mrs. Edgar Leavitt accepted the commission of furnishing picture and description of some famous local relic to be used by State Federation.

A "voluntary library fund" was voted for and is to be used for current library expenses.

An offer from Mr. Fuller was accepted, with thanks, for giving his first concert under the auspices of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, the club to have 60 per cent. of proceeds toward a fund for the purchase of a building site. Members were urged to be present at the next regular meeting, when nominations will be made for next year's officers.

The new program committee will be as follows: Mrs. F. L. Church, Mrs. Ezra F. Parker, Mrs. Robert H. Morris.

The literary program was in the hands of Mrs. Edgar W. Pack, who presented her topic, "Lord Byron; His Life and His Works," in a very comprehensive and attractive manner. At the close of her paper she gave, in a very charming and realistic manner selections from "Childe Harold's Pilgrimage," "Beppo," "Don Juan," and from her favorite "Mazeppa."

Mr. J. T. Rawlins, who has been spending the winter at his old home in Missouri, has returned to Glendale. Mr. Rawlins was ill a considerable portion of the time he was absent, and yielded to the attractiveness of California climate in coming away again from his old home.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

In San Francisco, Abe Ruef pleads guilty to charge of extortion. His act a surprise to everybody. Reads a long statement and breaks down. Reported to have made full confession.

SURPRISE PARTIES.

Surprise parties are in vogue in Glendale just now, and their particular objects appear to be those of our citizens who are fortunate enough to have birthdays.

On Wednesday evening, Mr. J. T. Rawlins, who recklessly acknowledged himself to be just completing his 63rd year, was inveigled into the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. H. Martin, of Orange street, and surprised in the most genuine manner by a company of friends who had assembled in honor of the event. The evening was enjoyed greatly by all present, even by the surprised victim, after he became accustomed to it.

On the same evening, Harry Wilde completed his 21st year and the occasion of his entering into man's estate was celebrated in a jolly manner by a party of young people who assembled at the residence of the young man's parents, to give him a pleasant surprise and congratulate him upon the occasion.

There were about 30 present and the evening passed pleasantly as those occasions do,

"When youth and pleasure meet,
To chase the glowing hours."

The Prize Fight Fiasco

Two lusty professional fighting creatures met in the arena the other night and pretended to be trying to batter each other into smithereens (whatever they may be) and because they failed to do it, a few thousand "sport-loving" gentlemen of Los Angeles want their money back.

We have sympathy going to waste for a worthy object to bestow it on; but really it is difficult for us to decide whether it should be given to the two pugs, or to the several thousand others who were so cruelly deprived of the "sport," to see which they had paid good money.

We have no doubt but that in the crowd composing the disappointed audience there were any number of "prominent" citizens, gentlemen whose time hangs heavily upon them, so that it must needs be disposed of in one way or another in this opulent old world of ours where there is so little that a man may do to make himself useful or add to the happiness of his fellows.

Poor, miserable old human nature! Scratch through the veneering of twentieth century refinement and how quickly you get to the brutality of the days of Nero, when men were butchered "to make a Roman holiday"!

Taft Again

If the Republican national convention should meet this week or next, the probability is that the nomination for president would be thrust upon Theodore Roosevelt. But it will not meet for a year to come, and we believe that the people will come to the conclusion during that time that it is possible for another man to carry out the work that Roosevelt has begun, and that it is not necessary for us to force the presidency upon a man who is sincere in saying he does not want it and will not have it.

President Roosevelt is a man accustomed to having his own way, and we believe he will have it in this instance. He will choose his own successor and the delegates will ratify his choice. We believe his successor has been chosen by him already in the person of W. H. Taft, and that from this time on, as for some time past, Mr. Roosevelt will see to it that the people are given a chance to agree with him as to the reasonableness of his choice. Mr. Taft has proved his wonderful ability in the Philippines, in Cuba, in Panama and in the United States, and we believe he will prove it wherever he is given the opportunity. He has shown himself to be independent and fearless; and he has proved himself to be patriotic to the exclusion of selfishness, as evidenced in the fact of his refusing to leave the Philippines to accept a high position, a position he had long aspired to, but would not accept because he believed that in justice to the Philippine islanders it was necessary for him to remain with them at a dangerous time. Unselfishness of this kind is rare. If there is another instance similar to it in our political history, we have yet to learn of it. And again we nominate Wm. H. Taft for president!

The Carnegie Library

As the subject of attempting to procure a Carnegie library for Glendale is being agitated to some extent, we publish the following letter as a matter of general interest:

SACRAMENTO, CAL., Feb. 26, 1907.
G. B. WOODBERRY, City Clerk.

Dear Sir: In response to yours of February 21st, I enclose a copy of the questions usually asked by Mr. Carnegie before he decides upon the granting of a sum of money to a town. In the case of Glendale, it would be well to state that the town has incorporated since the last census, for in every case he requires the population according to the census of 1900. Adding the last school census or the number of registered voters or any other definite statements would give weight to the statement. Mr. Carnegie requires that the town shall have passed an ordinance establishing a public library—that is, one supported by tax, and that the city council shall pledge itself to provide for the maintenance of the library, not less than ten per cent annually of the sum he gives. The pledge is not required until he makes a definite offer of money, but many towns pass a resolution before writing Mr. Carnegie. If he offers $10,000 to the city of Glendale, it would be necessary to levy a tax for the library which would provide it with an annual income of $1000. As your valuation is $668,845, the usual two mill tax would be more than sufficient to comply with his requirements. . . . .

Very truly yours,
J. L. GILLIS,
State Librarian.

CARNEGIE QUESTIONS

Has it a library at present?

Circulation for past year?
How is library housed?
Number and measurement of rooms and their uses?

Rate at which council will pledge support of library, levying tax for purpose if building is obtained?
Is requisite site available?
Amount now collected toward building?

* * *

City Attorney Baker has been requested to frame an ordinance providing for a library.

Having these facts before them, our people can now give the matter intelligent consideration and be prepared to act if desired.

Mistreatment of Japanese

There have been several instances of robbery of the houses of the Japanese in the valley recently, and one or two of assault. In regard to the former cases, the work is done of course by thieves who prey upon all races alike, and merely select the Japanese as easy victims.

In the assault cases, however, it is an outbreak of hoodlumism pure and simple, and as such it is to be hoped that all decent citizens will do what is in their power to stop it. That they are the aggressors in any instance of the kind is a statement that may well be disbelieved on general principles. They are a peaceable lot of people who have a right to demand protection of us while engaged in peaceable occupations; and the American citizen who will not protect them in this right is a poor specimen of our people and may as well be classed with the "undesirable."

Fourth Annual Convention of Pasadena District Association of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society

This convention meets at Glendale on May 22d and 23d and will be a notable event. Two hundred ladies, delegates and others, are expected to be in attendance.

On the Wednesday morning program we notice Mrs. Bryant will sing a solo, as will also Mrs. Roberts, which indicates that the time of the convention will not be given over to mere routine. There will be reports from all branches of missionary work, and interesting addresses on the work in foreign lands, delivered by good speakers who have a knowledge of their subjects which comes from personal experience. Young people's societies will be represented and at 3:35 Wednesdey afternoon there will be exercises given by Glendale children.

Rev. C. R. Norton will lead devotional services Wednesday evening and there will be an address by Rev. D. F. Howe.

Thursday morning there will be devotional exercises led by Mrs. Amanda Olmstead and a ladies' quartette will be an attractive feature. Thursday afternoon Mrs. Bertha B. Miller will lead the devotional exercises; Mrs. Lucie Harrison will speak on "Children's Work," Mrs. C. O'Neal on "God's Missionary Plan," Mrs. Harry Bierly will sing and adjournment takes place at 4 o'clock.

The above is just a suggestion here and there from a very full and interesting program. Glendale will, of course, give its usual hospitable welcome to the ladies and the meetings should be well attended.

LA CRESCENTA.

Mrs. A. S. Booth and daughter Alma spent several days in Los Angeles Fiesta week as guests of Mrs. James Smith.

Mrs. Allison Aylesworth has been visiting friends at Redondo during the past week.

The painters are at work on two buildings on Michigan avenue, namely, the store and the Badgely house.

Mr. Charles V. Pleukharp and family expect to leave soon for their new home in Highland Park. They are waiting until the transfer of the post office has been effected.

Mr. M. O. Klitten has gone up to Washington on a business trip. He is at Kennewick on the Columbia river, and expects to be gone about a month.

Rev. S. L. Ward held services at the chapel last Sunday. Mr. Weatherby, the Sunday school superintendent, proposed that the time for Sunday school be changed from 10 o'clock in the morning to 2:30 in the afternoon, church being at 3:30.

Berry Growers' Association

The warm weather is bringing strawberries in at a lively rate. The association is now shipping daily from its Trepico depot about 7000 cases. On Tuesday they shipped out 2700 cases to Arizona and New Mexico. On Wednesday, a carload, iced, containing 2000 cases, was shipped to Seattle. Altho this is a f. o. b. shipment, it is something in the way of an experiment, as only smaller quantities had been sent there before. There is not much doubt, however, that this order will be followed by other large shipments.

Mrs. C. W. Hartsough has been entertaining as her house guests the past week, Mrs. Guild of Santa Monica and Miss Williams of San Diego. The visitors have been enjoying the beauties of our valley as they have been driven around its most attractive parts by their hostess, and are, of course, delighted with Glendale.

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church, will meet with Mrs. Harris on Tuesday, May 20, at 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. Crowel, executive secretary of the home board, will be present and tell something of the work in the home land. A cordial invitation is extended to all who are interested in missions to be present.

Mr. M. P. Harrison has returned from a visit of two or three days to Pomona. He has been investigating the citrus fruit industry while away, and has arrived at the conclusion that Pomona has no advantage over this section in regard to the production of oranges and lemons. He finds that in that neighborhood, as here, it is the grower who spends money on his orchard, who gets money out of it. Mr. Harrison is a comparatively new settler in Glendale, but we believe he has discovered an important fact which some of our older timers are slow to accept.

While attempting to leave a rapidly moving Southern Pacific train at Burbank early Friday morning, Francisco Giron, a young clerk, slipped and fell under the wheels. His left leg was cut off above the knee and his right arm at the shoulder. Railroad officials sent the young man back to Los Angeles on a special engine and he was hurried to the county hospital, where he died about 4 o'clock, an hour after the accident.

Giron wanted to leave the train at Burbank, but the passenger train on which he rode did not stop there. The young man endeavored to alight, stepped on a stone and fell, rolling directly under the train. He was found helpless and semi-conscious beside the track a few minutes later and immediately given attention and sent to the hospital. Giron was 29 years of age, a native of Spain, and employed as clerk in a general merchandise store in Burbank. He was single and boarded with the family of F. C. White, Burbank.

Venus Wuerz, who left her Glendale home last week and whose whereabouts the police, two private detectives and a score of friends and relatives vainly endeavored to ascertain, was found last night at midnight by her father. She was with a woman friend and made no scene when her father appeared. She said that she had grown tired of the restraints of home and of the humdrum of life in the country, and would give no other explanation. She denied that any man had been concerned in the case and went home quietly with her father. Her mother was almost prostrated with joy at the girl's return.

Miss Wuerz, who is 19 years of age, disappeared from her home one day last week, certain neighbors saying that she drove off in an automobile with a strange man. The city and country around were searched carefully, but no trace was found until last night. Then the police found a clew that led to the discovery of the missing girl and her return to her home.—L. M. E. CHURCH NOTES.

The W. F. M. S. convention that meets in our church, next Wednesday and Thursday, May 22 and 23, is to be an occasion that will be of deep interest to all the community who are interested in the command of Jesus to "go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature."

The funeral service of Mr. S. S. Fausett, of North Pasadena, occurred at his late home at 2 o'clock on Thursday. It was attended by a number of people from Glendale, among whom was the pastor, C. R. Norton. Mr. Fausett was for a number of years a resident of this valley, honored and respected by all who knew him. He was a sufferer for a number of years and death came as a release to him, for he was fully prepared to enter the home beyond. The family of the deceased has the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

Rev. W. S. Blackburn will preach for us next Sabbath morning and the pastor will preach for the Presbyterian congregation, Tropico, on the invitation of the elders of the church in the absence of Rev. D. M. Stuart, pastor, who is in Ohio on official business for his church.

Rev. Prof. Knoles, of the N. S. C. will deliver the annual address on Sabbath evening, at 7:30, on "Christian Education." Prof. Knoles is a clear thinker and a strong reasoner. It will do you good to hear him whether young or old. No collection for the cause in this connection.

The Epworth League anniversary held last Sabbath evening, was a success. Singing good. Address by Rev. Graff excellent. The report of the secretary, Miss Amie Grant, was a model report and showed real progress by the league in service rendered. There are eighteen Epworth Heralds taken which should be increased by many more.

All church work is being done well. The reports to conference September 25, at Long Beach, will show nearly $4000 given for the benevolences this year by this congregation.

Christians should be among the very best of earth people. When a book is presented to you as a means of Bible study be sure that you know the origin of the book and what pet theory is sought to be advanced by it.

C. R. NORTON.

FROM NOME ALASKA.

We met at the store of Noble Brothers on Thursday, Mr. Littner, a cousin of the Nobles, who is visiting Southern California from Nome, Alaska, where he has been located ever since the discovery of that camp. He reports that the output of the Alaskan goldfields is constantly increasing. Nome is prospering and has about 7000 people. Although it has no harbor, there is a regular line of steamers at this season connecting with Seattle, six days distant. The most of the work at Nome is done during the winter when the earth is frozen as the pay dirt is found on the bedrock at the bottom of the tundra (boggy land in summer) from twenty feet to a hundred feet in depth. This wet earth, which is frozen hard nine months in the year, is dug out in winter time and cleaned up in the summer when the water begins to run. There are plenty of opportunities in Alaska for making money, but success means hard work and the endurance of hardships.

Notice

Owing to the fact that the Glendale Skating Rink has been sold, the dance that was to have been given on Friday, May 24th, will not take place.

STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING.

The stockholders of the Bank of Glendale, held their second annual meeting, Tuesday last. A statement was presented showing a very satisfactory condition of the business of the bank. The report showed that a dividend of four per cent. had been paid to stockholders, and the large amount of loans out, covered by first-class securities and drawing a good rate of interest, give assurance of other dividends in the near future.

The following gentlemen were elected directors for the ensuing year: F. H. Vesper, James H. Wells, D. W. Hunt, J. F. McIntyre, C. M. Walton, W. L. Henderson, Perry W. Weidner.

Street Work

Second street from Glendale avenue to A street, and C street between Second and Third, have been oiled and tamped; the finishing coat of sand still to be applied. The fine appearance of these streets is an indication of what the results will be when more of such work is done.

The expense to the property owners is considerable, but it places their property at once in a higher class, adding greatly to its desirability and market value.

The work on Fourth street is progressing slowly, but it is nearly ready for the oil, which will probably be applied in a few days.

Salt Lake Railroad

In an interview published in the Evening News, J. Ross Clark, second vice-president of the Salt Lake Railroad company, denies that the road is completely owned by E. H. Harriman. He admits, however, that Mr. Harriman owns one-half of it, the remainder being divided among W. A. Clark, Richard C. Kerens, Thomas Kerens, David Keith, J. Ross Clark and Thomas E. Gibbon.

In San Francisco

"Across the Plains"

Our old friend Randall H. Hewitt has written a book with the above title, which is a narrative of personal experience in crossing the plains from Illinois to Oregon forty-five years ago. Mr. Hewitt is one of the old-timers of Los Angeles, and has had considerable experience as a journalist. We remember him back in 1880 as proprietor and editor of the Los Angeles Daily Journal, which afterwards became the Los Angeles Times—the acorn from which the oak has grown. Mr. Hewitt had the journalistic instinct when he made the overland trip and kept a diary which is the material composing the interesting volume now published. The author is the father of the city attorney of Los Angeles, Leslie H. Hewitt.

A Temperance Suggestion

A friend who believes in prohibition suggests that this reform could be brought about gradually in the course of a few years, if every one who transfers real estate would put a restriction in the deed to the effect that the property should never be used for the manufacture, storage or sale of intoxicants. We believe that restrictions of this nature have not yet received the unquatified sanction of the courts, and the result of attempting to carry out the theory, is problematical.

WIDENING OF BRAND BOULEVARD

The hearing of the report of the viewers in the matter of opening up Brand Boulevard from the south side of Cypress street to the north side of Tropico avenue, came up before the Supervisors Monday morning. The proposition was to condemn a right of way forty feet wide on each side of the railroad's right of way. Mr. Chandler, owner of the property concerned, appeared before the board with a proposition for a road on each side of the railroad, thirty, instead of forty feet wide. The district attorney stated, however, that the proposed highway of forty feet on each side was, in effect, two roads, and should have to be considered as such in the present case, and that the county will not accept anything less than a forty-foot road.

The supervisors expressed a willingness to accept Brand Boulevard in its entirety as soon as it is extended to the river, although Mr. Patterson stated that there is not money in the fund apportioned to this district to pay the costs of any land to be condemned.

This leaves the matter of widening the boulevard between Cypress street and Tropico avenue, to be arranged between Mr. Chandler and the people.

Mr. L. C. Brand was present and intimated that he is ready to turn Brand Boulevard over to the County as far as his interests go, as soon as it is extended to the river, and that he will put a bridge over the Verdugo wash.
